

Patti Pagett
Communications Chair

Patti Pagett has been a member of St. Louis, Waterloo CWL council since 1988, and served her parish council as Communications Chair, two terms as President, Past President and is currently Treasurer. She is honoured to have received the Maple Leaf Service Pin from her parish council.

Patti has been married to Dave since 1975 and they have two children: Amy and Cory. Patti and Dave are active in their church. Patti also volunteers for Canadian Blood Services.

Patti works as a claims associate for a local group benefits administration company. In her spare time she enjoys reading, scrabble and playing cards.

Starting in 2003, Patti served as Kitchener Regional Secretary and Kitchener Regional Chair. She joined the Diocesan council to fill in as Recording Secretary in 2008, then served a full term in that role. That was followed by a term as Diocesan Corresponding Secretary, and two terms as Diocesan Treasurer, until this past May.

She looks forward to this new role as Communications Chair and continuing to serve all the wonderful council members of the Hamilton Diocese.
